

The Viola da Gamba Society's

TRY-A-VIOL DAY 2019

Saturday 15th June 11am-4pm

The Bedford Room, 11 Bedford Square, London WC1B 3RA

Who is this course for?

Anyone who would like to be introduced to viol-playing!

You must be able to read music fluently, but no previous string playing experience is necessary.

Instruments will be provided

Participants must be over 16

Cost £50 to include instrument hire. You will need to bring lunch, or there will be time to go out.

How will the day be run?

The day will take the form of an informal workshop. We will start from the very beginning: holding the instrument, learning the names of the strings, holding the bow. By the end of the day we will be playing as a consort!

Who is the tutor?

Alison Kinder - a member of Chelys consort of viols, and a keen teacher of both adults and children at all levels.
