[VaGS Nos. 1362-9, incipits overleaf]

A copy of Byrd's Cantiones Sacrae (1589) in private hands has, bound into the back, several leaves containing the tenor part of nine anonymous 4-part instrumental pieces. At the time of writing, no concordances have been found, nor has any evidence that Byrd might have written the pieces.

The Society is grateful for permission to include this material in the Index.

Coranto for 2 bass viols

RT 842

[Cor]

491

RT 831

Detailed description: This block contains a musical score for a Cor Anglais. It features two systems of a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The first system is labeled 'RT 842' and the second 'RT 831'. The music is in 3/4 time, indicated by a '3' over the first measure of the second system. The key signature has one sharp (F#). The score includes various musical notations such as eighth notes, quarter notes, and rests. A bracket connects the two systems, indicating they are part of the same musical phrase.

ANONYMOUS PAVANS AND GALLIARDS TO GROUNDS

- from John Merro's Books at Oxford, GB-0b MSS Mus Sch.D.245-6, pre-1639. These are extensive divisions on pavans and galliards formed on simple grounds. As with some other sets of anonymous pieces found only in these books, it may be reasonable to propose that Merro wrote them, possibly for instructional use rather than for entertainment.
